

Parables of Leadership- 1

Are you in right job?
Are you sure you are
in right place?

A
camel story

Mother, may I ask you
one thing

Sure, my son.
Is there
anything
bothering
you?

I ask you
one thing

Why do
camels have humps?

Well son, we are desert animals. We need humps to store
water and we are
known to survive
without water

Why do
camels have
humps?

Ok, then why
our legs are
long, and our
feet rounded?

Son, obviously they are meant for
walking in desert
better than anyone
does.

Ok, then why
our legs are
long, and our
feet rounded?

Ok, then why
our eye-lashes
are long
sometimes it
bothers my
sight

My Son, those long
eye lashes are your
protective covers.
The help to protect your eyes from
desert sand & wind.

Ok, then why
our eye-lashes
are long
sometimes it
bothers my
sight

Ok. So, the humps
are to store water,
the legs for
walking through
desert sand and
the eye lashes are
to protect eyes

YES.

Ok. So, the humps
are to store water,
the legs for
walking through
desert sand and
the eye lashes are
to protect eyes

Just one more
question

Yes, Son.

Just one more
question

What the hell
we are doing
in ZOO

???

What the hell
we are doing
in ZOO

Moral of the story-

Education.
Knowledge.
Skills.
Abilities.
Experience.

are useful
when we are in
RIGHT PLACE
