

A Story about faith

F A I T H

A wide-angle photograph of a vast, parched landscape. The ground is covered in a dense network of deep, dark cracks, forming a mosaic of irregular, polygonal shapes. The cracks are most prominent in the foreground and middle ground, receding into the distance. In the far distance, a lone figure of a person wearing a dark, long-sleeved garment and a light-colored head covering is walking across the cracked terrain. The background shows a line of green vegetation, possibly trees or bushes, under a bright, clear sky. The overall scene conveys a sense of extreme drought and desolation.

Long back, in one village, there was no rain for 3 years continuously

No Crops, no water, no grass for animals.

Everything was completely dried.

People started starving.

One saint recommended to perform a serious puja (Prayer/Yagna) for one week for the rain.

With the yagna the gods will be kind at us and give us the rain.

The saint suggested to arrange wood for fire, Ghee, some leaves and other requirements.

The saint suggested all the villagers to sit in puja daily for one week

Villagers gathered the money and arranged all the things required for prayer.

Saint started the yagna. All the villagers, elders, children are all attended the prayer.

All know the prayer is for one week the 1st day one is over.

Day-1

Everyone attended the 2nd day also. the saint performed the Puja successfully.

The day 2 prayer is over but there is no rain sign on sky..

All villagers know that only 2 days over, remaining 5 days are there.

Day 3,4,5,6 prayers were over.
But no sign of rain.

All villagers attended 6 days every prayer.

The most disappointed that in 6 days nothing happened. Felt that nothing will happen on 7th day also.

Day-6

7th day prayer started. All villagers attended.

A little boy came to attend the prayer with an umbrella.

The little boy got faith that as it is last day for the prayer, it will rain

Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase
